Richmond, Dec. 30, 1789.

RUN-AWAY from the

ſubſcriber living at Clover-Dale, Auguſta county, Virginia, about the 1ſt of April laſt, a negro man ſlave named BRUNSWICK, about 28 years old, about five feet eight inches high, rather ſlim made, has an impediment in his ſpeech; he was purchaſed by Mr. William Dandridge in New-Kent, when he was manager of Chattom rope-walk, and continued there till 1[illegible], and has been at Clover-Dale ſince that time [illegible] he made his elopement; he has been ſeveral times taken and brought to Mr. Henry Ball in Richmond, and has often made his eſcape; he appears rather ſilly, which induces thoſe that has had him in cuſtody to indulge him, by which he effects his eſcape. It is probable he is lurking in New Kent, where his relations lives; he has been ſo long abſent, I think it unneceſſary to attempt deſcribing his cloathing.——Alſo run-away from the ſame place, about the 12th of this month negro DAVEY, about forty-five years of age; has a blemiſh on one eye, about 5 feet 7 inches high, ſtout and well made, by trade a ſhoe-maker, ſenſible and artfull; had on when he went away, a ſhort coat, of home made woollen cloath, cotton breeches, ſhoes, ſtockings, &c. I purchaſed him of the Hon. Carter Braxton, who had him of Doctor Hall; he is ſo univerſally known that a further deſcription is unneceſſary. It is probable he will lurk about Weſt-Point, Northumberland, or Richmond. Whoever takes up the above ſlaves, or either of them, upon delivery to Mr. Henry Ball in Richmond, will receive one guinea, beſides what the law allows, for each; and if delivered to the ſubſcriber at Clover-Dale, five pounds for each, beſides what the law allows.—It will be neceſſary to ſecure them well and be very watchful.
